And now, the REALLY Important Things:

Why are you interested in taking this capstone seminar?

How has your coursework &/or other activities in your major prepared you for this capstone seminar?

If applicable, please tell us about any other experiences (at Miami or elsewhere) that have prepared you to take this capstone seminar.

Tell us how you see yourself ensuring the success of your group's design prospectus.
To put it another way, what will you uniquely contribute to the group effort?

In one sentence (ok, two), react to the following statement: For this capstone seminar, you will work closely with peers who have different majors, experiences, and ways of learning.
