In an ever-changing global community, students choose to study abroad for many reasons: enhancing global awareness, learning a new language, and building academic, professional, leadership, and communication skills.

IDS 154 provides you the opportunity to consider questions, issues, and challenges that will be part of your study abroad experiences and provides tools for understanding and interacting with people in your host country and other cultures.

For more information, please contact bermanmj@MiamiOH.edu

Before you study abroad take

IDS 154, Introduction to Study Abroad

MONDAYS & WEDNESDAYS | 4:30 - 6:05 PM | February 2 - April 10, 2015

Instructor: Gina Asalon, MUDEC Study Abroad Advisor

In an ever-changing global community, students choose to study abroad for many reasons: enhancing global awareness, learning a new language, and building academic, professional, leadership, and communication skills.

IDS 154 provides you the opportunity to consider questions, issues, and challenges that will be part of your study abroad experiences and provides tools for understanding and interacting with people in your host country and other cultures.

For more information, please contact bermanmj@MiamiOH.edu